

The Queenslander Pictorial.

"FOOT DRILL"

Caring for the feet of the men who have been several days in the front line

Australian Official Photography Co.

LAUNCHING "RYAN'S THOUSAND" AT THE C. & O. BRISBANE.

"Placards" for "Ryan's Thousand" signs of the S. & S. in the street.

The rest of the audience.

Mr. Ryan, "I have done for the voluntary system, and I will stand for it."

Mr. Ryan, "I have done for the voluntary system, and I will stand for it."

Mr. Ryan, "I have done for the voluntary system, and I will stand for it."

RETURNED SAILORS AND SOLDIERS' DAY IN BRISBANE.

The march through Queen-street, 1914 District Guard.

Boys in navy blue.

The Green Jacks in which awards were dropped.

Returned soldiers at the Exhibition Ground, lined up for the distribution of medals.

The Governor pinning the Military Medal on Private J. H. Mumford.

The Boy Scouts.

Boy Scout, 1914 District Guard, wearing the Green Jacks, other school for award, 1914.

With the Army in France.

Australians
officers and men in France.

A road from the road.

At the Australian headquarters, France, all men from the line are given food and cups of coffee.
Squadrons take breaks in the building while the battery stay with their horses.

THE 1914-1915 AMERICAN FOOTBALL TEAM AT BOSTON.

—T. H. H. photo.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN FOOTBALL TEAM IN BOSTON.

A snapshot photograph of the great meeting in the White's Theatre in New York.

—H. H. H. photo.

WITH THE AUSTRALIANS IN FRANCE.

Australian Lewis machine gunners in a "possy" formed by a shell-splintered tree. They are here seen having a "put shot" at a Boche plane.

Australian official Photograph, copyright.

These are the only ways by which it is possible to pass over the strength and swamps of the battlefield.

